

HALIFAX PORT AUTHORITY WELCOMES NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The Port of Halifax is Canada's Ultra Atlantic Gateway, connecting to more than 150 countries and generating $2 billion in annual economic benefit from a diverse cargo and cruise business. Halifax handles some of the largest container vessels operating along the East Coast of North America.

Captain Allan Gray
CEO

Captain Allan Gray joined the Halifax Port Authority as President and CEO in November of 2019.

Before joining the Halifax Port Authority, Captain Gray was the General Manager of Fremantle Ports in Australia. He joined Fremantle Ports in July 2006 as Deputy Harbour Master / Manager Marine and Port Operations and was appointed Harbour Master in September 2008. He was appointed General Manager Port Operations in July 2009, including commercial operations and management of the port's bulk business. Allan Gray was the Federal Master (Board Chairman) for the Company of Master Mariners Australia from 2009 to 2013 and was awarded life membership for his contributions to raising the profile of the Company. He is currently the President of the International Harbour Masters Association.

Prior to coming ashore, Captain Gray's career at sea spanned over 20 years. During this period, he traded on various vessels from RO-RO, container and bulk through to the last 10 years which were spent on LPG Tankers with Bergesens of Norway. Trading patterns included Japan / Far East, Europe, Africa, South America and the United States.

The Halifax Port Authority welcomes Captain Allan Gray to Halifax and looks forward to continued success under his leadership.

www.portofhalifax.ca